MULTIPLE LISTING SERVICE

On October 18th, 2010, the following advisory was issued by the REALTORS[®] Association of Edmonton:

This past weekend, a couple posing as buyers knocked on the door of a listing and asked the owner if they could just take a quick peek inside. The owner consented and invited them into her home. The male excused himself when the ladies were in the kitchen so he could have a look at the garage where he proceeded to steal the registration and insurance papers from the home owner's car.

The "viewing" continued again and the home owner was not in the presence of both of the "Buyers" at all times. After they left, she discovered that her wallet containing all her identification, credit cards, etc. had been stolen from her purse.

Please, never admit anyone posing as a Buyer into your property without an appointment and/or in the company of a REALTOR[®]. If you have any questions, please call anytime.
